

Dear Homeowner,

We would like once again to thank you for listing your rental properties with us. Our rental program is growing each year. We hope that this continues and we want to make sure we offer the best program possible.

Enclosed is our 2021 Rental Listing Packet. It includes the following forms:

- Rental Listing Agreement for 2021
- W9 Form
- Property Information and 2021 Rate Sheet
- New Jersey Law against Discrimination Letter

PLEASE NOTE: The above forms are also available on our website at: <https://shorepointsrealtynj.com>

If you are listing more than one property or rental unit, you need to complete a separate Rental Listing Authorization Agreement for each unit.

Please fill out, sign, and return the required documents. You may mail them, fax them to 609-522-9412 or email them to us at info@SPRNJ.com. Please take the time to read the homeowner information sheet, on our website <https://shorepointsrealtynj.com> as it outlines our program, its recent updates and what is required of you the homeowner.

Please be sure to list the names of other Real Estate offices that will be handling your property. It is your responsibility to report to us any of your rentals. The cleaning and inspection of the rental units are also your responsibility. In the event of an emergency and we are unable to contact you, it would be helpful if you would provide us with your service contractor for plumbing, electrical, air conditioning, and appliances. We will also require 5 sets of keys for each lock of your unit and copies of your Mercantile/Room Licenses. You may apply for your license at the City Hall of the municipality where your rental property is located.

We will collect the security deposit and turn it over to you. You have within 30 days of departure to return the security deposit to the tenant.

Please return your rental form to us as soon as possible so that we can begin marketing your property. We are already receiving inquiries for the 2021 rental season. If you have any questions or if you DO NOT plan on renting this season, please contact our office.

We will place a rental sign on your property unless you indicate otherwise.

Thank you for choosing Shore Points Realty. We look forward to a successful summer season with you.

SUBJECT: Housing Discrimination Laws

The New Jersey Real Estate Commission (REC) requires every licensed broker or salesperson with whom you list your property to give you a copy of this notice. The purpose is to help you comply with the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (LAD).

Under the LAD, it is illegal to discriminate against a prospective or current buyer or tenant because of actual or perceived race, national origin, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, marital status, civil union status, domestic partner status, affectional or sexual orientation, familial status, pregnancy or breastfeeding, physical or mental disability, or liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States. It is also illegal to discriminate against a prospective or current buyer or tenant because of any source of lawful income to be used for rental or mortgage payments. Source of lawful income includes Section 8 housing choice vouchers, SRAP (State Rental Assistance Programs), and TRA (temporary rental assistance). It is also illegal to make, print, or publish any statement, including print advertisements and online postings, expressing any preference, limitation, or discrimination based on any of those protected characteristics.

The LAD applies to a wide range of activities, such as advertising, selling, renting, leasing, subleasing, assigning, and showing property (including open land). Here are some issues that come up frequently in enforcing the LAD:

- The prohibition on discrimination based on source of lawful income means, for example, that a landlord cannot reject a prospective tenant because they intend to pay with a Section 8 housing choice voucher, State Rental Assistance Program (SRAP), temporary rental assistance (TRA), or any other subsidy or voucher provided by federal, state, or local rental-assistance programs. A housing provider cannot advertise a property in any way that discriminates based on source of lawful income, including by posting advertisements that state, directly or indirectly, a refusal to accept, or express any limitation on, vouchers or subsidies. For example, advertisements that state “No Section 8,” “TRA not accepted,” or “This property not approved for Section 8” violate the LAD. In addition, housing providers must calculate any minimum income requirement, financial standard, or income standard based only on the portion of the rent to be paid by the tenant, rather than the entire rental amount.
- The LAD prohibits bias-based harassment in housing, including sexual harassment. If a tenant is being subjected to bias-based harassment that creates a hostile environment, and if the housing provider knew or should have known about it, the housing provider must take reasonable steps to stop it. That includes harassment by other tenants and by a housing provider’s agents or employees. “Quid pro quo” sexual harassment—for example, where a building superintendent demands sex or sexual favors as a condition of making necessary repairs—is also prohibited.

- Housing providers must reasonably accommodate tenants with disabilities unless doing so would be an undue burden on their operations. For example, if a tenant shows they have a disability and that keeping an emotional support animal is necessary to afford them an equal opportunity to use and enjoy the dwelling, the housing provider must permit the emotional support animal, even despite a “no pets” policy, unless they can show that doing so would be an undue burden.
- A “no pets” rule cannot be enforced against a person with a disability who has a service or guide animal. A landlord may also not charge a tenant with a disability an extra fee for keeping a service or guide animal.
- Landlords must permit a tenant with a disability-at that tenant’s own expense-to make reasonable modifications to the premises if such modifications are needed to give the tenant an equal opportunity to use or enjoy the dwelling.
- The LAD prohibits discrimination based on “familial status”-for example, discrimination against families with children under the age of 18 and pregnant women. Landlords similarly cannot use unreasonable occupancy restrictions to prevent families with children from moving in.
- Selectively inquiring about, or requesting information about and/or documentation of, a prospective tenant’s or buyer’s immigration or citizenship status because of the person’s actual or perceived national origin, race, or ethnicity, or otherwise discriminating on such a basis, is a violation of the LAD.
- As explained in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development’s April 2016 Guidance document, because of widespread racial and ethnic disparities in the criminal justice system, blanket policies that make all individuals with any prior arrest or criminal conviction ineligible to rent violate fair housing laws because they have a disproportionate impact based on race or national origin and are not supported by a legitimate business necessity. And housing providers may not use criminal history as a pretext for intentionally discriminating based on race or national origin (for example, by applying criminalrecord based restrictions against Black housing applicants but not white housing applicants).

Penalties. If you commit a discriminatory housing practice that violates the LAD, you may be subject to penalties not exceeding $10,000 for a first violation, not exceeding $25,000 for a second violation within five years of the first offense, and not exceeding $50,000 for two or more violations within seven years.

Other remedies. Victims of discrimination may recover economic damages related to the discrimination (such as having to pay higher rent for another unit) as well as damages for emotional distress, pain and humiliation. In more egregious cases, a victim may also recover punitive damages.

Brokers. The broker or salesperson with whom you list your property must transmit to you every written offer they receive on your property. Brokers and salespersons are licensed by the New Jersey Real Estate Commission and their activities are subject to the LAD as well as general real estate laws of the State and the Commission’s own rules and regulations. The broker or salesperson must refuse your listing if you indicate an intent to discriminate on any basis prohibited by the LAD.

Exemptions. The sale or rental of property (including open land), whether for business or residential purposes, is covered by the LAD, subject to the following exemptions. Note that when an LAD exemption applies, other civil rights laws may nonetheless prohibit discrimination.

- The LAD does not apply to the rental of one unit in a two-family dwelling if the owner occupies the other unit, or to the rental of a room or rooms in a one-family owner-occupied dwelling.
- A religious organization can give preference to persons of the same religion when selling or renting real property.
- In certain types of housing designated for older persons, it is not unlawful to discriminate based on familial status.

For more information about the LAD, or if you have other questions about discrimination in the sale or rental of real property, including how to report a complaint, please visit www.NJCivilRights.gov or call our Housing Hotline at (866) 405-3050. DCR has a number of fair housing fact sheets that are available at <https://www.nj.gov/oag/dcr/housing.html>. Thank you.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

General Instructions
 Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form
 A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it and, when applicable to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or,
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on a foreign partner's share of effectively connected income.

Note: If a requestor gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requestor's form as if it is substantially similar to the form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:
 •An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
 •A Partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
 •An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
 •A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations Section 301.7701 - 7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such a business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W - 9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W - 9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W - 9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity.

AS A TRANSACTION BROKER, I, AS A LICENSEE, DO NOT REPRESENT EITHER THE BUYER OR THE SELLER. ALL INFORMATION I ACQUIRE FROM ONE PARTY MAY BE TOLD TO THE OTHER PARTY.

Before you disclose confidential information to a real estate licensee regarding a real estate transaction, you should understand what type of business relationship you have with that licensee. There are four business relationships: (1) seller’s agent; (2) buyer’s agent; (3) disclosed dual agent; and (4) transaction broker. Each of these relationships imposes certain legal duties and responsibilities on the licensee as well as on the seller or buyer represented. These four relationships are defined in greater detail below. Please read carefully before making your choice.

SELLER’S AGENT A seller’s agent WORKS ONLY FOR THE SELLER and has legal obligations, called fiduciary duties, to the seller. These include reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality and full disclosure. Seller’s agents often work with buyers, but do not represent the buyers. However, in working with buyers a seller’s agent may not make any misrepresentations to either party on financial ability to pay, and must disclose defects of a material nature affecting the physical condition of the property which a reasonable inspection by the licensee would disclose.

Seller’s agents include all persons licensed with the brokerage firm which has been authorized through a listing agreement to work as the seller’s agent. In addition, other brokerage firms may accept an offer to work with the listing broker’s firm as the seller’s agents. In such cases, those firms and all persons licensed with such firms are called “sub-agents.” Sellers who do not desire to have their property marketed through sub-agents should so inform the seller’s agent.

BUYER’S AGENT A buyer’s agent WORKS ONLY FOR THE BUYER. A buyer’s agent has fiduciary duties to the buyer which include reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality and full disclosure. However, in dealing with sellers, a buyer’s agent must act honestly. In dealing with both parties, a buyer’s agent may not make any misrepresentations on matters material to the transaction, such as the buyer’s financial ability to pay, and must disclose defects of a material nature affecting the physical condition of the property which a reasonable inspection by the licensee would disclose.

A buyer wishing to be represented by a buyer’s agent is advised to enter into a separate written buyer agency contract with the brokerage firm which is to work as their agent.

DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT A disclosed dual agent WORKS FOR BOTH THE BUYER AND THE SELLER. To work as a disclosed dual agent, a firm must first obtain the informed written consent of the buyer and the seller. Therefore, before acting as a disclosed dual agent, brokerage firms must make written disclosure to both parties. Disclosed dual agency is most likely to occur when a licensee with a real estate firm working as a buyer’s agent shows the buyer properties owned by the sellers for whom that firm is also working as a seller’s agent or sub-agent.

A real estate licensee working as a disclosed dual agent must carefully explain to each party that, in addition to working as their agent, their firm will also work as the agent for the other party. They must also explain what effect their working as a disclosed dual agent will have on the fiduciary duties their firm owes to the buyer and to the seller. When working as a disclosed dual agent, a brokerage firm must have the express permission of a party prior to disclosing confidential information to the other party. Such information includes the highest price a buyer can afford to pay and the lowest price a seller will accept and the parties’ motivation to buy or sell. Remember, a brokerage firm acting as a disclosed dual agent will not be able to put one party’s interests ahead of those of the other party and cannot advise or counsel either party on how to gain an advantage at the expense of the other party on the basis of confidential information obtained from or about the other party.

If you decide to enter into an agency relationship with a firm which is to work as disclosed dual agent, you are advised to sign a written agreement with that firm.

TRANSACTION BROKER The New Jersey Real Estate Licensing Law does not require licensees to work in the capacity of an “agent” when providing brokerage services. A transaction broker works with a buyer or seller or both in the sales transaction without representing anyone. A TRANSACTION BROKER DOES NOT PROMOTE THE INTERESTS OF ONE PARTY OVER THOSE OF THE OTHER PARTY TO THE TRANSACTION. Licensees with such a firm would be required to keep confidential any information. A transaction broker can locate qualified buyers for a seller or suitable properties for a buyer. They can then work with both parties in an effort to arrive at an agreement on the sale or rental of real estate and perform tasks to facilitate the closing of a transaction.

A transaction broker primarily serves as a manager of the transaction, communicating information between the parties to assist them in arriving at a mutually acceptable agreement and in closing the transaction, but cannot advise or counsel either party on how to gain an advantage at the expense of the other party. Owners considering working with transaction brokers are advised to sign a written agreement with that firm which clearly states what services that firm will perform and how it will be paid. In addition, any transaction brokerage agreement with a seller or landlord should specifically state whether a notice on the property to be rented or sold will or will not be circulated in any or all Multiple Listing System(s) of which the firm is a member.
